WORLD FARM CENTER—CONCEPT

June 24, 1968
[H. Con. Res. 413]

Whereas the business of agriculture is a basic industry vital to the economy and sustenance of the United States of America and the entire world; and

Whereas the development of techniques, research, and procedures for the improvement of the agricultural industry is necessary to the well-being of the farmers and consumers of farm products; and

Whereas World Farm Center advocates from all segments of the agribusiness industry are cooperating in the founding of a World Farm Center at Ontario, San Bernardino County, California, as a service organization which is designed to—

(1) serve as an agricultural "clearinghouse" and marketing information center;

(2) encourage, assist, and cooperate in agricultural research programs with universities, governmental agricultural agencies, and private agencies;

(3) develop the site of World Farm Center as a manufacturing
